

Diving Deep: A Tale of Whales Through Time

Quinte Museum of Natural History Launches a New Exhibit That is Sure to Make a Splash

Quinte West, ON. March 17, 2023 - Visitors are encouraged to come explore Quinte Museum of Natural History's new exhibit, Diving Deep: A Tale of Whales Through Time, open now.

Developed in partnership with Research Casting International, the exhibit follows the fascinating journey of whales through time. Visitors are encouraged to get up close to life-size whale specimens and discover the awe-inspiring story of these ocean giants for themselves.

At the official ribbon cutting ceremony yesterday, QMNH Executive Director Deanna Way formally launched the new exhibit with support from Quinte West Mayor Jim Harrison, Research Casting International President and Founder Peter May, and Quinte West Chamber of Commerce CEO Suzanne Andrews, and Trenval CFDC representative Chris Frazer.

Quinte Museum of Natural History is open Wednesday to Sunday from 10:00am to 5:00pm. Admission is $8 per person, children five and under are free. Those interested in visiting the exhibit can book tickets in advance on the museum's website or purchase tickets at the door.
