

"The Quinte Museum of Natural History: Expedition to Alert"

Trenton, ON — March 23rd — The Quinte Museum of Natural History is proud to announce the opening of our new exhibit Expedition Alert: Stories from the High Arctic

Join QMNH on an Expedition to Alert Nunavut. In this immersive exhibit in the High Arctic, with our expert scientist guides from the University of Quebec at Rimouski, We will explore the North of the North, and explore the biodiversity that calls this world of extremes their home. through the lens of the research that our guides have conducted in the Polar Desert biome. This expedition takes place at a moment when the Arctic is changing faster than anywhere else on Earth, making Alert a critical place to understand how climate change is reshaping life and research at the top of the world.

Regular Hours:

Open 5 days a week, Wed-Sun, 10am-5pm.

Admission: FREE for all loyalist students | $8 per Adult | Children 5 & under: Free

For more information, visit www.quintemuseum.ca

[End of Press Release]

CONTACT:

Deanna Way

Executive Director

deanna@quintemuseum.ca

About Quinte Museum of Natural History:

The Quinte Museum of Natural History is dedicated to inspiring discovery, conservation, and stewardship of our natural heritage. Through engaging exhibits and educational programs, we aim to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation of the natural world.

For more information, please visit <https://quintemuseum.ca>.